

COLLIS PRIMARY SCHOOL

Newsletter

12th February 2010

Half Term

Do remember we close today at the normal time for our half term break. We all return on Monday 22nd February at 8.50am.

Parent Forum

A reminder that this takes place on Thursday 4th March, at 8.00pm. Please see last week's newsletter for more details.

Thinking Day - 22nd February

All Rainbows, Brownies and Guides are asked to wear their respective uniforms on Monday 22nd February, to celebrate the organisations' 'Thinking Day'. We have some special assemblies planned for the day.

National Young Writers' Award

Children in years 3 – 6 took part in a special assembly on Tuesday. They were told about an exciting story writing competition which is being run by Explore Learning.

The story has to be on the theme of 'lost and found' and there is a 500 word limit. The top prize is a family trip to Disneyland Paris and £500 worth of books for our school, so it is well worth entering!

For an entry form, please see Mrs Silverman. Entries will be collected from school on 25th February so please hand any entries in to Mrs Silverman, Class 5S, by that date. Good luck!

World Book Day - Thursday 4th March

We will be celebrating World Book Day again in school this year with a Book Character Fancy Dress Parade, so start thinking about who you may like to come as, over the half term break.

More details to follow.